Greetings!

Travis Place will be celebrating our 10th anniversary this fall. We are a company designed to help women overcome their anti-fashion feelings and early underwear traumas by putting a little fun and diversity into shopping.

Our clothes are chosen for their comfort, versatility, and durability.

We are here to assist you in choosing the right underwear for your particular needs, helping you with color selection, and providing good products at reasonable prices by mail. We aim to fit anyone who tries us on.

Thanks for your continuing support, comments and encouragement. The other businesses whose products are represented here thank you, too. Your support will move us through this recession. Keep up the good work! We look forward to hearing from you.

WELCOME TO THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF WE BE BOP!

We Be Bop has worked with us this Spring to produce a unique set of exotic prints in an oversized short-sleeve shirt, baggy pants and shorts. We apologize to those of you who experienced problems with the Fall-Winter patchwork styles from We Be Bop. The combination of patchwork and overdyeing produced a weakness in the seams of some of the garments.

We Be Bop is working with us to satisfy the problem for any of our customers. The spring line-up is made from one piece of fabric (not patchwork), without the overdyeing. We're excited about the new prints, styles and LOWER PRICES! Enjoy! And, as usual, let us know what you think. We're always interested in your comments and suggestions.

Please don't ever stop carrying your "Harem Pants" [page 15]—I've come to think of them as my standard issue uniform. I've actually worn my black ones until the seams started to fray (it took me several years of constant wear.)

I always enjoy your catalogue, and it's much easier to picture how I'd look in something when I see them on your real-life models. Besides, they always look like they're having a lot more fun than the air-brushed models every one else uses.

A faithful customer,
Gina M, New York NY

Dear Travis Place, Inc.

I'm writing to you from Glasgow, Scotland where I am looking at a dog-eared copy of Briefs which I still receive at my mother's home...

Your catalogue is really great and I've long admired your creativity and bravery when it comes to making a company work and then hopefully, thrive. My primary joy about TP is to see excellent quality clothes made available by (and then modelled on!) women who are dedicated to the comfort and pleasure of other cotton-lovin' women. I was once anorexic and I know that high-fashion photography being crammed into my eyes/throat(?) was a big contributor—hurray for realism, humour, diversity and colour Travis Place style! And thanks for all your tips from bra-sizing (something few women understand much to their discomfort) to cotton care...

Love,
Libby D, Glasgow Scotland

Dear Travis Place women:

I am glad to see you have survived the hard economic times—finally your catalogue arrived! Is it possible to get your catalogues any earlier? Many of your competitors (large and small, homegrown & huge mail order companies) do, and sometimes its tempting to order from them, since their catalogues often show up in early March—and even February.

But! I waited—and I'm glad I did. I expect I will be placing a second...order with you soon! (Your new Frequent Buyers Club is most encouraging).

Keep up the great work, ladies, and in this election year of inevitably false promises, thanks many times over for keeping true to the basic value the company was founded on!
